Dear Friends and Patrons,

Siri and I want to formally advise you, in writing, about the changes in the dive community, as we've been doing business during the last ten years since March 1999. Due to the current economic situation we have moved our Store and Offices. We are still in Business, we simply had to relocate so we can still service the Dive Community.

The Dive Quest Office, PADI Materials, Service/Repair area, Rental Gear (BC's, Regulator systems, wetsuits, weights, etc.), Travel, Tanks and Air Compressor is located at our home at 2005 Del Mar Ave., Las Cruces, NM. The phone number remains the same (575) 525-3483, and is at our home too. Our cell #'s are; Siri 575-644-1716 & Punk 575-649-7138.

To stay in compliance and keep our dealerships, we requested and received approval from all of our current vendors to relocate the physical location of Dive Quest Scuba to Truth or Consequences, New Mexico until further notice. This change took place on 01 January 2009. Punks' mother, Luetisha Potter will keep regular store hours, 11am to 6pm so you can do business. A phone call to 575-894-7897 would be appreciated to make your appointment. Siri and I will take turns doing weekend duty there.

There were concerns about protecting the dealerships in the Las Cruces market, since the physical store will be located 75 miles away. We have been assured by our vendors that the dealerships are still protected. We hope that this information will allow each of you to rest a bit easier, knowing that you may still obtain service on the products you are familiar with and are diving with. We will create a traveling display in our Dive Trailer, to allow a sampling of products still available in Las Cruces.

When the economy improves over the next few months to a year or so, we will re-open a full store front in Las Cruces again.

We want to thank each of you for your support to date and ask that it continue. We are all dealing with the tough economy and will hopefully continue to lean on each other for support and assistance.

Regards,
Richard E. "Punk" Potter Jr. & Siri Rustebakke
