Holy Week Celebrations

Living Last Supper

April 5, 2007

7:00pm

The second annual presentation of the LIVING LAST SUPPER will be presented Thursday, April 5, 2007 at 7:00pm. I know you will be blessed as you partake and worship with us as we relive this phase of the life of our Christ and hear from the 12 apostles as they tell how their lives were transformed by Christ. Come and bring a friend.

Silent Lord's Supper

April 6, 2007

12:00 noon

This is one of the most impressive services that I have ever been in. This will be Friday (Good Friday), April 6 at noon. We anticipate a large crowd so come early to get a good seat. God will bless you.

Easter Sunday (Resurrection Day)

April 8, 2007

Easter Sunday is always a big day. Easter is the most important day in our calendar. This is the day that our Christ was raised from the grave. Let us all celebrate this day in worship in His house.

THE RESURRECTION PROMISE

“Jesus said to her, ‘I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.’” John 11:25

From the wide extended arms of the cross at Calvary’s hill,/ they took the spear-pierced body with nail-scarred hands – Jesus, the Son of Holy God – and laid Him to rest in a borrowed tomb./ The tomb was sealed and a guard was placed nearby./ On the third day, the tomb was empty, the grave clothes still in place./The heavy stone was rolled away, and an angel came to say to the women who were there,/ “He is not here; he has risen just as he said.”

*For forty days the Savior stayed on earth before ascending to the Father./He taught the men who followed Him and gave to them a task: “Go ye...and teach all nations...baptizing them...teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway’
(Matt 18:19,20). (Adapted, Adult Leadership, 4;15;90, Kennedy: BSSB, Nashville, TN)*

The great preacher, D L Moody, expressed his triumphant faith in Jesus; resurrection and his own immortality (see the key verse) when he told his congregation “Some day you will read in the papers that D L Moody is dead. Don’t you believe it! At that moment I will be more alive than I am now; I shall have gone up higher, that is all! I was born of the flesh in 1837; I was born of the Spirit in 1856. That born of the flesh may die, but that which is born of the Spirit will live forever!”

From the time of Jesus’ crucifixion, His enemies have tried to deny and disprove His resurrection. It is still happening today! How can we have the same assurance D L Moody had of Jesus’ resurrection promise of life after death? Here are two of the best reasons I know: (1) The inspired, authoritative Word of God confirms it – it was predicted in the Old Testament (Luke 24:44-46) and by Jesus Himself (Matt 16:21); His resurrection and ours was promised (John 14: 18,19,23,28); and it was recorded in all four Gospels and in 1 Corinthians 15. (2) The personal experience of believers authenticates the truth of the resurrection – the disciples continued to follow Jesus (Acts 1:1-8; 2:1-43); Paul emphatically declared belief in the resurrection (1 Cor 15:12-23); millions of Christians throughout history have testified to belief in a living Savior – by their faith and commitment, changed lives, and an assurance of eternal life in heaven with Him. “...For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day” (2 Tim 1:12).

A church deacon was once asked by a skeptic why he believed Jesus rose from the dead. “Well,” he answered, “one reason is that I was talking with Him for half an hour this very morning.” Those who acknowledge Jesus’ living presence in their lives experience proof of Jesus’ resurrection.
