Do not compare yourself with others for you are own beautiful footprints in the sand.

B. Kimball

I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life. He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Thanks

My move to Springfield, Missouri, is a mixed blessing. I will miss this church and so many of you individually. Is there a greater gift than encouragement to become more and more Christlike? That is the gift you have given me and I thank you. Please continue to pray for me. I will think of you especially on Tuesday night and will be praying with you.

Sincerely,

Jimmie Sue Hobert

How to Set Goals

1. Ask God to guide you. Ask yourself “Is this what God wants me to do?”
2. Determine exactly what you want. Be specific.
3. Decide which goals are immediate, short range, long range.
4. Write it down. This helps.
5. Set a goal so high that if God doesn’t help, you will fail.
6. Set a date for reaching goals allowing for changing circumstances.
7. Make a commitment.
